There were on board these vessels 4,054 persons, of whom 3,993 were saved and only 61 lost. The number of shipwrecked persons who received succor at the station was 658. The es-timated value of the vessels and cargoes involved in the disasters was nearly $10,000,000. Of this amount $7,688,000 was saved. In addition to the number of persons saved from ves-sels there were 83 others rescued who had fallen from wharves, piers, etc., who would have perished without the aid of the life saving crews. The number of disasters by reason of storms was greater than in any previous year since the introduction of the present system. The cost of the mainenance of the service during the year was only a little over $1,225,000.

Brandon, Vt., Dec. 3. - The Post Office robbers who operated at Ticon-deroga, N. Y., Wednesday night, were captured near here Thursday after a hot chase. There are four of them. The train dispatcher here received a dispatch that the robbers probably came this way. Sheriff Fletcher was notified and started in pursuit, but the robbers doubled on their tracks, cam back through Brandon and hired a liveryman to take them to Rochester. The officers discovered the trick, and telephoned to Rochester for a posse to meet the suspects. Sheriff Tinkham and four officers started for the latter place and met their men two miles this side, where a desperate battle took place, resulting in the wounding of two officers and two robbers and the capture of the gang. Twenty-five ahots were exchanged. The robbers were searched, and $45 and a quantity of stamps were found on three, but nothing was found on an old man, who refused to say a word.

A BAD BREAK.

The remarks of Hon. Fred Douglass at the dinner given in honor of Hon. H. C. Smith by Recorder of Deeds Taylor, were out of place. At the conclusion of the repast the guest of the evening was introduced and expressed his appreciation at being present to a dinner in his honor and the compliment tendered him by the gen-tlemen present to do him honor.

The host then introduced Hon. Fred Douglass who responded in his usual happy mode, and said among other things that the opposition to Mr. Taylor came from a prejudiced class and that he would always be with him.

This concluded the speech making and the guests left.

My dear girl, I hope the time will soon come when our society will eradicate this distemper and purge itself of all impurities.

This wedding that was looked forward to be one of the grandest in the history of the household resulted in ridicule. This class of people cannot be said as being members of a race of people who, but a few years ago, wore the shackles of slavery. You will find a bastardy class drawing the color line. They seem to boast of their bastardy and attempt to ignore people of an honest birth. They are too white to be identified with the race and too dark to mix with the white race. I would suggest that they set up a society of their own and let it be known as a society of accident births. We would know who they are and so would the white people. BARDIN DIVORCE CASE.

JAMES C. MATTHEWS OF THIS CITY SURPRISES THE DAKOTA BAR.

From the Albany Evening Journal. The Bardin divorce case, arising in Troy and with many connecting links in Albany, which was tried two weeks ago at Chamberlain, in South Dakota, and aroused general attention by its sensational features reached a result today, when Judge Haney of the Dakota Circuit Court gave judgment in favor of the plaintiff, Mrs. Della Bardin. The news was conveyed in the following dispatch to the Hon. James C. Matthews of this city, who conducted the trial at Chamberlin in behalf of Mrs.

"Mi chell, S. D., Aug. 31, 1894.—Jas. C. Matthews of Albany, N. Y.: Absolute divorce, five thousand alimony, five hundred attorney's fees.
"F. M. Goodykoontz."

In February, 1887, Louis Osporne and Della Salisbury were married in the county where both parties lived. Soon afterward the husband disappeared, and after six years Mrs. Osborne moved to this city, where she married Lyman D Bardin, the defendant in the present action. Previous to this marriage Mrs Osborn consulted a lawyer, who advised her that she had a right to believe her husband dead, and could legally re-

Very soon Bardin became convinced it is alleged, that his wife knew where Osborne was all the time. He left her and went to Dakota. She followed him and they again concluded to live together. Soon after they went to Troy and lived there a short time, when Bardin again returned to South Dako:a.

Subsequently Bardin went to New Haven, N Y., where he married a Miss

A LIBERAL ORGAN OFFER.

That there has been a revolution and the manufacture of Organs and Pianos is evinced by the current offer of Cornish & Co., the well known manufacturers of Washington, N. J. For the next 60 days they offer to sell an organ for $42.50, which a short time ago would have been considered a desirable bargain at $75.00. With this they offer terms of credit that are sure to meet with the approval of every fair-minded person. Cornish & Co. are the largest makers of Pianos and Organs in the world selling direct from the factory to the home. Since the conception of this great business, nearly thirty years ago, they have been fighting the method of selling instruments through agents and dealers, their plan being to give the enormous profits usually retained by the tradesman to the buyer. Their efforts to place first class instruments within the reach of all, at manufacturely agents and the most liberal terms. er's prices and the most liberal terms, deserves the highest commendation. Every one who is contemplating the purchase of an Organ or Piano, should get the cotalogue issued by this firm. It illustrates and describes all the latest and best designs of Organs and Pianos with prices and special offers that are sure to prove profitable. They general ly offer to send to it free to all whowrite and mention the BEE.

HER COTTON ON FIRE.

The Steamer Starlight Puts Into St. Johns With a Blaze Aboard. St. John's, N. F., Dec. 3 .- The British steamer Starlight, of West Hartlepool, bound from Galveston to Liverpool, cotton laden, arrived here yesterday afternoon with her cargo on fire. She left Galveston fourteen days ago and coaled at Newport News. The fire was discovered on last Friday morning in hatch 3. A careful inves-tigation revealed the fact that a large body of fire existed. Measures were promptly taken to keep it under control, and the compartment was flooded by the pumps. The ship was at once headed for St. John's. The fire gained progress gradually, the deck became heated and had to be con-stantly flooded with water. On arriving pipes were constructed, by means of which steam was sent through the cargo. The work of unloading began to-day. NATIONAL BANKS.

The Report of the Comptroller of the Currency.

Washington, Dec./3.—The report of James H. Eckels, Comptroller of the Currency, has been made for the year ending October 31, 1894. It shows that during this period but fifty banks were organized, with a capital stock of $5,285,000, the smallest number char-tered, as well as the minimum amount of capital, in any one year since 1879. The charters of 41 banks were extended during the year, having an aggregate capital stock of $5,143,000 and a circulation of $1,678,050. On October 31, 1894, the total number of national banks in operation was 3,756, with an authorized capital stock of $672,671,365, represented by 7,955,076 shares of stock, owned by 287,842 shareholders.

HERR MOST AS AN ACTOR.

He and the Other Amateurs in "The Weavers" Enthusiastically Cheered. Paterson, Dec. 3.—John Most and a company of forty amateurs presented Gerhart Hauptmann's "The Weavers" before an audience of about 600 persons at Turn Hall last night. The audience cheered the characters vociferously. At times many of them rose in their seats, waved their hats, and shouted at the top of their voices for "Herr Most and revolution." The players were in dead earnest. The police found no reason to stop the play.

London, Dec. 3.—A dispatch to the Times from Kobe says that Japan seems intent upon the prosecution of the war with China. Preparations are making for a winter campaign.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The Japanese have not, so far as the State Department officials will admit, yet made any reply to the proposals of the Chinese Government for a termination of the war now going on. It is expected that Japan will expect China to send an embassy to Tokio and have negotiations conducted and the explicit terms of peace arrived at in the manterms of peace arrived at in the man-ner common in Oriental countries. Detering was refused an audience at Yokohama. He had Li Hung Chang's peace proposals. Shanghai, Dec. 3.—Admiral Ito, com-

Shanghai, Dec. 3.—Admiral Ito, commanding the Japanese fleet, escorted Admiral Freemantle and a hundred British officers over Port Arthur last Sunday. The flying Chinese soldiery have outraged, pillaged and murdered on every side, sparing in their frenzied cruelty neither women nor children. A correspondent who witnessed the battle at Port Arthur, and has now reached Hiroshima. Japan, says woundreached Hiroshima, Japan, says wounded Japanese were found at Port Arthur with their heads, hands and feet cut off and their bodies awfully mutilated. The Japanese artillery displayed magnificent marksmanship. The Chinese Generals fied after the first fort was taken. Had they surrendered many Chinese lives would have been saved. The barbarism and cruelty of the Chinese are indescribable. Many Chinese were killed during the battle, but the Japanese treat kindly those now remaining in the city.

OUR ARMY.

The Annual Report of the Secretar Washington, Dec. 3.—The annual re-Washington, Dec. 3.—The annual report of Secretary of War Daniel S. Lamont shows the strength of the army at present constituted as follows: Cavalry officers, 430; artillery officers, 280; infantry officers, 875; total officers of the line, 1,585; general officers and in staff departments, 551; total officers, 2,136; enlisted men of cavalry, 6,050; enlisted men of artillery, 3,975; enlisted men of infantry, 12,525; enlisted men of engineers, 500; recruits, 309; total enlisted men in companies and regiments, 23,759; enlisted men in deregiments, 22,759; enlisted men in de-tachment and unassigned to regiments, 1,241; total authorized under act June 18, 1874, 25,000; enlisted men, hospital corps, act March 1, 1887, 772; total all enlisted men, 25,772.

Afraid of Train Robbers. St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 3.—An order has been issued by General Manager Dod-dridge, of the Missouri Pacific Rail-road Company, discontinuing all night passenger trains on the Kansas and Arkansas Valley Division after December 9 running between Coffeyville, Kan., and Van Buren, Ark. Mr. Dod-dridge says the present condition of affairs in the territory, resulting from the recent hold-ups made by the nu-merous bands of outlaws in that section of the country, has compelled him to take this action to protect the passengers of his road. The day trains will run as usual.

A Famous Bank Cashler Dead. Northampton, Mass., Dec. 3. — John Whittelsey, cashier of the Northampton Savings Bank, died suddenly from heart disease Friday afternoon.
Mr. Whittelsey, who had been in the employ of the bank for thirty-five years and had been cashier for over twenty years, was made famous by his connection with the famous Northampton Savings Bank robbery January 26.

Nuptials of Uncle Sam and Queen Lil. Washington, Dec. 3.-There is some discussion here as to the action which the Hawaiian Congress may take this winter with regard to annexation to the United States. It is believed, however, by public men in the United States who are familiar with the situation in Hawali that the Congress of the latter country will take no formal action at this time expressive of their desire for annexation.

Bank Robbers Get $10,000. Lamoni, Ia., Dec. 3.—The Commercial Bank here was entered and the safe blown open by robbers. An entrance was forced through the rear door. Holes were drilled into the safe above the combination, and a charge of powder threw the door across the room. The robbers secured $10,000 in money and considerable jewelry.

An International Stamp.

Washington, Dec. 3. — Postmaster-General Bissell has received from the French Government a request to enter into an agreement with that country to send letters from there with pre-paid reply. They will, of course agree to accept a similar plan on the part of the United States. Mr. Bissell is in favor of an international

Call for Populist Convention. St. Louis, Dec. 3.-A special call for a national meeting of the Populist par-ty has been issued, the convention to be held in St. Louis this week. The call is the result of the action taken by the Bi-metallic League in recommending the establishment of a new silver party.

The Income Tax.
Washington, Dec. 3.—Secretary Carlisle has the completed regulations, as prepared by Supt. Pugh, for putting the income tax into effect. Two forms are provided, one for the return of the income of individuals and one for the return of corporations.

Would Make the Triple Alliance Useless Rome, Dec. 3.—The Tribune says that an Anglo-Russian understanding would render the Triple Alliance useless, which need not be regretted by Italy. It would rest then with France to establish a new balance of power.

The Czarewitch Not Dead London, Dec. 3. — A dispatch from St. Petersburg denies upon official authority the report of the death of the Czarewitch, the Grand Duke George, and also says that he is not even in a critical condition.

James Cobourn, of Green Island, a baggageman, was bruised and narrowly escaped being drowned. George Place, an extra baggageman, and several of the passengers received slight

BIG FIRE IN UTICA.

A Quarter Million Dollars in Property

Burned.
Syracuse, N. Y., Dec. 4.—A dispatch received from Utica states that one of the most disastrous fires ever experienced in that city originated in the large oil, paint and wholesale drug warehouse of Comstock Bros., located in the Henry Martin building in Genesee street. It gained rapid headway and soon the entire store was in flames All efforts of the fire department were at first fruitless. The electric light wires made trouble and several per-sons narrowly escaped destruction. Telegrams were dispatched by the fire department to neighboring towns for assistance. The Western Union office was endangered. Further dispatches stated that the fire was being brought under control, but that the entire Henry Martin building was destroyed. It was impossible to estimate the loss with any degree of accuracy, but a rough estimate at $125,000. The Martin building was valued at $50,000.

THE ARMENIAN MASSACRE

Confirmation of the Terrible News Be-London, Nov. 19.—The Daily News correspondent in Constantinople says in a dispatch concerning the massacre of Armenians in the Saesoun district:
"Sir Philip Currie sent Consul Hall-ward's report of the incidents at Sassoun to the Porte in order to indicate the serious nature of the events. The Porte, instead of accepting this in a friendly manner, brusquely denies the facts, asserting that Mr. Hallward's report is untrue. It was insinuated, or stated outright, that he had encouraged the Armenians to revolt. This was, of course, ludicrous and absurd. Shr Philip Currie at once informed the Foreign Minister that he should take steps to verify his assertions. His energy paralyzed the Porte, who on Saturday withdrew the allegations against Hallward. The Sultan ordered a commission of three military men and a civilian to make an immediate inquiry. From many sources confirmation of former reports of the mas-sacre have been received. The utmost endeavors have been made to prevent the facts from becoming known. A number of Armenians who fled towards Trebizond have been ordered to return.'

Constantinople, Nov. 19.-The action of Sir Philip Currier, British Ambassador to Turkey, has caused consternation among the members of the Turkish Government, and every effort is being made to keep secret the facts of the outrages in Armenia.

A DEADLY KNOCK-OUT.

Bob Fitzsimmons Gives Con Riordan

usual sparring exhibition which closed the programme of the vaudeville show

Friday night, Con Rio dan, the sparring partner of "Bob" Fitzsimmons, was knocked out by a right hander from Fitzsimmons which caught Riordan on the angle of the jaw. The accident occurred at 10:30 o'clock, and two physicians worked over Riordan with applications of electricity for two hours without being able to restore him to consciousness. Riordan breathed as if in pain, and the only evidence of life was a twitching of the muscles when the battery was applied. Fitz and his manager, Capt. Glori, were greatly alarmed when the true condition of Riordan was made known to them. The blow was a light one, but Riordan's condition was against him. He died Saturday morning from the effects of the blow. He did not re-cover consciousness after the knockout. Riordan had been drinking and the blow caused hemorrhage of the brain. Fitzsimmons is badly scared.

Immediately after the Riordan incident Joseph Dunfee, a local sparrer, who killed Donovan in a fight at Maple Bay about a year and a half ago, put on the gloves for a two-round set-to with Fitzsimmons. In the second round Dunfee landed a right hand blow on Fitzsimmons's jaw, resulting in a clean knockdown, the first Fitzsimmons declares he was ever given.

Shortly after midnight Fitzsimmons was placed under arrest and locked
